

PHOTO RELEASE AND BEHAVIOR STANDARDS

MINOR PARTICIPANT PHOTOGRAPH, IMAGE and/or NAME RELEASE POLICY

TBT will occasionally use photos from camp in our publicity material, including, but not limited to, our website, bulletin boards, brochures, etc. Please choose whether or not you authorize TBT to use your child’s photo as “publicity/performance record.”

_____ / We do authorize the release of my/our child’s photograph, image and/or name as “publicity/performance records”. I understand that a record of this request will be filed at the theatre office and his/her photograph, image or name may be used in theater publications or other methods of information dissemination under the control of The Brecksville Theatre.

_____ / We do not authorize the release of my/our child’s photograph, image and/or name as “publicity/performance records”. I understand that a record of this request will be filed at the theatre office and his/her photograph, image or name may not be used in theater publications or other methods of information dissemination under the control of The Brecksville Theatre. IF YOU CHOOSE TO NOT AUTHORIZE, PLEASE ATTACH A SMALL PHOTO OF YOUR CHILD SO THAT ALL PERFORMANCE PHOTOS etc CAN BE SCANNED FOR REMOVAL OF THEIR IMAGE FROM FUTURE PUBLICITY.

BEHAVIOR STANDARDS

We’re happy you’re here! Please follow these guidelines for TBT camps and classes:

- Be kind and respectful to classmates and instructors.
- Listen and follow directions.
- Obey classroom rules.
- Demonstrate a positive attitude in class.
- Be prompt on arrival and departure.
- Show respect for your environment and the theatre.
- Most importantly.....Have Fun!

Disrupting the learning environment and/or inappropriate behavior can be cause for dismissal from the program. Any participant that behaves in a manner that is inconsistent with expectations will be spoken to immediately by the camp director, parent volunteer, teacher, teaching assistant or TBT board member. If no change of behavior is evident, the participant’s parent or guardian will be notified. If necessary, the child will be dismissed from the theatre, camp or class and a refund will not be issued.
